Letter of Recommendation

By this letter of recommendation, I would like to support the nomination of Professor Fernando Galván for the honorary award of Doctor Honoris Causa of Universitatea de Vest din Timișoara (West University of Timișoara). In acknowledgment of Professor Galván's various activities and merits of, I will focus on the past twenty years of our personal academic cooperation.

From the very beginning of our long-term cooperation in developing English studies in Central/Eastern/Southern Europe after 1989, Professor Galván, as a Member of the Board of the European Society for the Study of English (ESSE) in the years 2001-2005, was showing his personal interest, effort and help in broadening academic links, in both research and pedagogic cooperation between member countries. Later on, as the President of ESSE in the period of 2007-2013, he made a significant contribution to strengthening the position of Central/Eastern/Southern European countries on the map of English studies in Europe, and, what is equally important, to the presentation and representation of the scholars, their research projects, publications and other research activities on the international humanities and arts platforms.

He always insisted on the support of Central/Eastern/Southern European English studies associations which were functioning in very different conditions and building on very different histories compared to their Western and Northern European professional bodies. By personally attending conferences and meetings of Central/Eastern/Southern members of ESSE – Slovakia, Romania, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Poland, Slovenia, Bulgaria, Albania, and often presenting his research and sharing his expertise there, by nominating representatives of these associations to various ESSE committees and working groups, he was showing his personal and professional respect to the scholars and English studies academia in these parts of Europe.

As Secretary of ESSE during his tenure as President of ESSE, and ever since, I had numerous opportunities to be a witness to Professor Galván's equal and fair judgement of the results of academic work of colleagues from universities in Central/Eastern/Southern Europe, to his generosity in having them involved in his research projects and other academic activities. In his capacity as Rector of the University of Alcalá, he established international exchanges of staff and students within the programmes of, for instance, Erasmus+, with numerous Central/Eastern/Western universities, thus enabling close cooperation and exchange of good practice in the academic and managerial fields. Thanks to Professor Galván's pro-active approach to the establishment and development of international English studies links, thanks to his willingness to share his personal professional contacts, many university lecturers and students have benefited from the direct access to sources and expertise otherwise unavailable to them. As a member of numerous editorial and reviewers' boards of international journals, both well-established and also those starting their existence (most recently the Slovak Association for the Study of English Journal of Literary and Cultural Studies), he has contributed to the quality of research in English studies in all corners of Europe.

Looking at Professor Fernando Galván' CV, one can say that he has always operated as a bridging and linking element in establishing first contacts, in specifying the fields of possible development of academic cooperation and in enhancing cooperation by his personal contribution in the most productive manner. During the twenty years of our academic cooperation, Professor Galván became a valued professional and personal friend of many English studies departments at universities in Central/Eastern/Southern Europe. By his personal example, as a knowledgeable, persistent, active, and always responsive researcher and teacher, Professor Galván has inspired many junior scholars on their journey towards interdisciplinarity in the broad area of English studies.

I am absolutely confident that Professor Fernando Galván is a most suitable nominee for the award of Doctor Honoris Causa of the West University of Timișoara and that he will contribute to the further internationalization of the West University of Timișoara, and the development of its English studies in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Letter of recommendation concerning the proposed conferment of the degree of Doctor (honoris causa) on Professor Fernando Galván, OBE, FEA.

UNIVERSITY
GLASGOW

21/08/2020

Dear Sir/Madam,

I wish to support the proposal of conferring an honorary degree on Professor Fernando Galván from your university.

Professor Fernando Galván is the distinguished former Rector of the University of Alcalá de Henares, Madrid, one of the most famous and oldest universities in Spain. He is also an internationally acclaimed and prolific scholar of English literature. I had the privilege of presenting the laudatory speech when Professor Galván received the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters at my institution, the University of Glasgow, and I am most impressed by his many achievements.

In addition to the arduous and distinguished position of being a Vice Chancellor/Rector, Prof. Galván has continued his academic work and his strong international links. Until 2013 he was the President of ESSE, the European Society for the Study of English, a position he held for two terms of office. This is a European federation of national higher educational associations for the study of English. It has c. 8000 members in 33 European countries. Both Professor Pârlig of your university and I have had the pleasure of being the Honorary Secretary of ESSE and witnessed his expert leadership of that organization. Prof Galván has also been President of the Spanish Association for Anglo-American Studies, on the Board of the European Association for American Studies and of the Spanish Association for Comparative Literature.

Fernando Galván has received a number of research grants and distinctions from, for example, the German DAAD, the British Council, and other prestigious Spanish institutions. He is a Corresponding Fellow of The English Association since 2003, and has been a Visiting Scholar at Harvard University and Visiting Fellow at Corpus Christi College, Oxford. He has received honorary doctorates and academic honours from the National Autonomous University of Nicaragua in León (2012), the National University of Villarrica del Espíritu Santo in Paraguay (2014), San Sebastián University in Chile (2016), the National University of Political Studies and Public Administration in Bucharest, Romania (2017) and Caucasus University in Tbilisi, Georgia (2019). In 2018 he was honoured by Queen Elizabeth II with the Order of the British Empire (OBE).

He is Advisory Editor for many peer-reviewed international journals in English Studies and has served on commissions for quality assessment for Higher Education in teaching and research on behalf of the Spanish Ministry of Education and Science, the French Evaluation Agency for Research and Higher Education, and the Italian National Agency for the Evaluation of Universities. He is also a Member of the Executive Committee of IAUP (International Association of University Presidents): 2012--.

He is the author of many books on Medieval English Literature and on several English novelists such as Charles Dickens, George Orwell, Doris Lessing, John Fowles, David Lodge, Ian McEwan and Salman Rushdie. He has also edited six volumes of critical essays and written more than a hundred articles and book chapters on a wide range of English authors such as William Cowper, William Wordsworth, John Clare, D.H. Lawrence, William Golding, Harold Pinter, Angela Carter and many more. These are listed in his curriculum vitae and are too many to list here.

Professor Galván has also been a member of the jury for many literary prizes, such as the Cervantes Prize for Literature, in 2010 and 2014, as well as external examiner of more than 100 PhD dissertations in English Studies.

Fernando is a man of many skills and abilities. I asked a number of friends and colleagues about him and all say how highly respected and dedicated he is: elegant, calm and collected, and extremely generous with advice and support to everyone.

Fernando Galván is therefore the perfect Renaissance man -- a brilliant scholar, a gifted administrator, and an international celebrity. I strongly recommend him, therefore, for this honorary degree.

Yours sincerely,

Graham D. Caie

Subject: Reference for Professor Fernando Galván

Turin, 28/08/2020

Professor Fernando Galván's international cursus honorum is an extraordinary record of intellectual distinction and institutional achievements. The following two instances aptly show how his eminent scholarship is one with his untiring work for the advancement of academic excellence. In 2016, under his guidance as Rector, the Universidad de Alcalá earned the first "five-star" position amongst Spanish Universities, qualifying in the range of the world's best according to the QS Stars international accreditation system. In 2017, he was awarded, and received from the Queen, the O.B.E. (Order of the British Empire) for his contribution to the development of educational relationships between Spain and Britain (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/honorary-british-awards-to-foreign-nationals-20179>).

In my capacity as chair of AIA (the Italian Association of English Studies), since 2007 I shared several academic and scientific events in which Professor Galván had the leading role as President of ESSE. Throughout those frequent communications, meetings and exchanges within our scientific community, I had the opportunity to enjoy his highly accomplished scholarship and to observe the personal capacities which earned him great respect. Professor Galván brings fervent debate to a productive focus by paying close attention both to people's ideas and to their emotional responses. In so doing he comes to grasp the essence of personalities and to negotiate cooperation, without being either domineering or complacent. He has a great deal of empathy and likes to listen – a rare quality.

The major program, indeed a challenging one, which I came to share with Professor Galván was the first national evaluation of research in Italian academic institutions. We were appointed by ANVUR (Agenzia Nazionale di Valutazione del Sistema Universitario) to organize and monitor the peer-reviewing of over 1,600 research products in English and American language/literature. In those two years of incessant work, Professor Galván's integrity and commitment led to excellent cooperation from a wide international network of reviewers, actually proving how his academic authority rests on mutual esteem and on knowledge of the research interests, writing and community bonding of colleagues. Such a prompt and highly qualified response was crucial to inscribing the Italian research community on the international horizon.

It is my personal privilege, and an immodest one, to conclude by mentioning one special experience. When I was presented with a Festschrift volume in June 2017, a two-day linguistics seminar was organized by the English section of our Department of Social, Cultural and Political Studies. Not only had Fernando Galván penned a Preface for the volume which I treasure immensely, but he faced an exhausting ordeal of flights to be with us, share the texts and talks, and deliver a closing address which was full of his personal warmth and calm eloquence, perfectly fitting the occasion and the audience. It was, as usual with Fernando Galván, a perfect connubio of his sense of institutions, fine knowledge of national academic cultures and unique understanding of human beings.

I take great pleasure in commending Professor Galván's merits on the occasion of a Doctor honoris causa award from West University of Timișoara and in congratulating our colleagues on such a richly deserved academic initiative.

Fernando Galván, profesor la Universitatea Alcalá (Madrid), una dintre cele mai vechi universități din Spania, este o personalitate de renume internațional în domeniul anglisticii, unde s-a impus printr-o prodigioasă activitate.

După obținerea doctoratului la Universitatea din La Laguna, Tenerife, în 1981, Fernando Galván a parcurs treptele ierarhice academice la acea universitate, obținând în 1990 postul de profesor; după patru ani, devine profesor la Universitatea din Alcalá de Henares (Madrid), unde funcționează și în prezent, fiind expert în studiile medievale și renascentiste, în literatura engleză modernă și contemporană, traducere literară sau literatura și cultura comparată.

Lista sa de lucrări este impresionantă: a publicat și a editat, ca singur autor sau în colaborare, numeroase cărți (15), precum și foarte multe traduceri în spaniolă – ediții critice, atent alcătuite, cu substanțiale introduceri și note, retipările în repetate rânduri – ale operelor unor importanți scriitori clasici de limbă engleză (Sidney, Milton, Richardson, Defoe, Fielding, Wordsworth, Dickens, Conrad, Graham Greene, Joyce, Orwell, etc.). De asemenea, a editat numere speciale ale unor reviste, dedicate unor scriitori. Fernando Galván este și autorul unor capitole de carte sau studii care au apărut în volume publicate la edituri ca Macmillan, Rodopi, Peter Lang, Routledge, Gunter Narr Verlag, Blackwell Publishing, Bloomsbury, Cambridge University Press, la edituri din Italia, Japonia, SUA și, desigur, din Spania. Publicațiile sale – atât cărțile, cât și traducerile, studiile sau articolele, scrise fie în engleză, fie în spaniolă, apreciate favorabil de critici și comentatori, au beneficiat de aproape patruzeci de recenzii.

Activitatea științifică și publicistică a domnului profesor Galván este validată și de calitatea sa de profesor invitat la Universitățile Harvard și Oxford, de membru în comitetele editoriale ale multor reviste academice, printre care și al revistei Facultății de Litere, Istorie și Teologie, B.A.S./British and American Studies, tipărită în momentul de față de Editura Universității de Vest, pe care a sprijinit-o și a promovat-o de-a lungul anilor, contribuind astfel la includerea ei în importante baze de date internaționale. A fost membru în juriile unor concursuri și în cele pentru acordarea unor premii de importanță majoră (de exemplu, binecunoscutul premiu Cervantes pentru literatură, a cărui ceremonie de decernare are loc chiar la Universitatea Alcalá), în comisii de acreditare a unor universități sau programe universitare sau în comisii internaționale care se ocupă de evaluarea calității în învățământul superior (în Spania, Italia, Franța). De altfel, o parte dintre publicațiile sale tratează teme specifice administrației și dezvoltării instituțiilor de învățământ superior (ex. “Învățământul superior global: o perspectivă din Spania” (2016), “Zece provocări pentru universitățile ibero-americane pe orizontul 2031” (2015), “Predarea și cercetarea universitară în spațiul ibero-american” (2014), “Dezvoltarea spațiului euro-latino-american al învățământului superior. Politici, programe și mecanisme. Mobilitate, recunoașterea calificărilor, diplome” (2013)).

Fernando Galván și-a asumat nu numai responsabilități culturale și științifice, ci și de ordin administrativ și organizațional. A fost șef de catedră/departament la universitatea din La Laguna și apoi la Alcalá, prorector al Universității Alcalá (2002-2008), rector al acestei universități timp de două mandate (2010-2018). A fost ales și a activat și ca președinte al unor societăți academice (de ex., ESSE/ European Society for the Study of English, 2007-2013, AEDEAN/Societatea Spaniolă de Studii Anglo-Americană, 1996-2002), președinte de onoare al Forului Academic Permanent America Latină, Caraibe și Uniunea Europeană sau ca membru în conducerea mai multor societăți academice. În momentul de față este membru al comitetului executiv și secretar general ales al IAUP (International Association of University Presidents/ Societatea Internațională a Rectorilor).

În toate aceste funcții, unul dintre obiectivele permanente ale activității profesorului Fernando Galván a fost consolidarea relațiilor academice între universități, facultăți și catedre. În ceea ce ne privește, a sprijinit programul Erasmus între Universitatea de Vest și Universitatea Alcalá, program de care au beneficiat și membri ai Facultății de Litere, Istorie și Teologie a Universității de Vest; a participat de două ori, ca vorbitor în plen, la conferința internațională B.A.S., organizată de colectivul de limba și literatură engleză al facultății; a făcut posibilă funcționarea d-nei prof. univ. dr. Hortensia Pârlog, printr-un grant de predare (Giner de los Rios grant), ca profesor la nivel masteral la Universitatea Alcalá (masteratele de traductologie), grant în urma căruia relațiile dintre cadrele didactice ale Facultății de Litere, Istorie și Teologie și cele de la Universitatea spaniolă au sporit în intensitate; a jucat un rol esențial în alegerea doamnei prof. Pârlog ca redactor șef al revistei The European English Messenger, publicată la Coimbra, în Portugalia, al cărei format tipărit era distribuit la acea oră la cca 8000 de membri ai ESSE, în Europa și în lume, revistă în care și-au găsit locul și lucrări ale colegilor de la catedra noastră de engleză. Profesorul Galván a susținut, de asemenea, în repetate rânduri, aplicațiile universității noastre pentru topul QS Ranking și a sprijinit, prin scrisori de recomandare, candidaturile unor colegi la poziții didactice universitare.

Activitatea de înaltă ținută academică a profesorului Fernando Galván, conștiinciozitatea sa, atitudinea cooperantă și disponibilitatea de a se implica în proiectele colegilor și de a le sprijini cu expertiza sa, contribuția sa la procesul de internaționalizare a învățământului superior au fost recunoscute și apreciate de către multe universități sau instituții și organisme guvernamentale, care i-au acordat diplome de onoare, distincții, granturi sau i-au conferit titlul de Doctor Honoris Causa (în acest din urmă caz, Universitatea din Glasgow, Universitatea Autonomă Națională din León (Nicaragua), Universitatea Națională din Villarrica del Espíritu Santo (Paraguay), Universitatea din San Sebastián (Chile), Școala Națională de Studii Politice și Administrative/SNSPA, București, Universitatea Caucasus din Tbilisi (Georgia)). Un loc aparte între aceste numeroase distincții și forme de recunoaștere a meritelor sale îl ocupă Ordinul Imperiului Britanic (OBE) în grad de Ofițer, cu care a fost răsplătit de către Regina Elisabeta a II-a pentru serviciile sale în slujba legăturilor culturale britanico-spaniole (un ordin care se acordă rar celor care nu sunt cetățeni britanici).

Complexa activitate desfășurată de profesorul Fernando Galván, profesionalismul său, prestigiul său științific și academic, larga sa deschidere spre colaborarea internațională îl recomandă ca excelent candidat la titlul de Doctor Honoris Causa al Universității de Vest din Timișoara.

In January 2018 Queen Elizabeth II appointed him honorary Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) for his services to UK-Spain educational ties.

He has received a number of research grants and distinctions from the German DAAD ("Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst"), the British Council, and various prestigious Spanish institutions. In his capacity as a philologist, he has held important responsibilities at the national and international level: President of the Spanish Association for Anglo-American Studies (AEDEAN: 1996-2002); President of the European Society for the Study of English (ESSE: 2007-2013); Board member of those institutions in other periods (AEDEAN: 1992-1995; ESSE: 2001-2005), as well as member of the Board of the European Association for American Studies (EAAS: 1993-1999), and of the Spanish Association for Comparative Literature (SELGYC: 1995-2006).

He is an Advisory Editor for some twenty peer-reviewed journals in English Studies both in Spain and in other European countries. He has served as a member of numerous committees in teaching and research quality assessment for Higher Education, such as the National Evaluation Agencies of the Ministry of Education and Science of Spain (ANECA, ANEP and CNEAI), several regional Spanish agencies (AGAE, AGAUR, ACSUCYL), the French Evaluation Agency for Research and Higher Education (AERES), and the Italian National Agency for Universities and Research (ANVUR). He has also been a member of the Boards of Instituto Cervantes (2010-2018) and of Universia Spain (2012-2018).

Fernando Galván has an extensive teaching and research experience (40 years), covering English fiction, Medieval and Renaissance Studies, literary translation from English into Spanish, as well as comparative literary and cultural studies for English-speaking and Spanish-speaking countries. He has edited and translated into Spanish many English classics, such as Philip Sidney, John Milton, Daniel Defoe, Samuel Richardson, Henry Fielding, William Wordsworth, Charles Dickens, Oscar Wilde, James Joyce, Joseph Conrad, George Orwell or Graham Greene. He is the author of books on Medieval English Literature, and on English novelists such as Charles Dickens, George Orwell, Doris Lessing, John Fowles, David Lodge, Ian McEwan, or Salman Rushdie. He has also edited half a dozen volumes of critical essays on topics related to Mary Wollstonecraft, English metafiction, magical realism, or culture and power. He has authored more than a hundred articles and book chapters on English poets like William Cowper, William Wordsworth, John Clare or Basil Bunting, and on many contemporary writers in English: D.H. Lawrence, Muriel Spark, William Golding, Harold Pinter, Angela Carter, D.M. Thomas, Michèle Roberts, Hilary Mantel, Bruce Chatwin, Amit Chaudhuri, Louis de Bernières, Caryl Phillips, Anita Desai, J.M. Coetzee, Cormac McCarthy, etc.

Fernando Galván has held numerous relevant jobs in the administration of the University for more than three decades: at the University of La Laguna, Tenerife, as Secretary of the Faculties of Philosophy and Letters, and Philology (1981-1984), and Head of the Department of Modern Languages (1983, 1988-89 and 1991-1992); and at the University of Alcalá, as Head of the Department of Modern Languages (1995-2002), Vice Rector (Vice President / Pro Vice Chancellor) for Departments (2002-2006) and Vice Rector for Academic Planning and Staff (2006-2008). He has been Rector (President / Vice Chancellor) of the University of Alcalá, elected for the period 2010-2014, and re-elected for a second period 2014-2018. He also chaired, in 2013, the Conference of Presidents of the Universities of Madrid (CRUMA, in Spanish), and between January 2014 and January 2018 he chaired the Committee for Sustainability of the Conference of Rectors of Spanish Universities (CRUE, in Spanish). He was also President of the Committee for Accreditation and Training in Languages in CRUE (2010-2018). He is now a member of the Executive Committee and Secretary-General-Elect for 2020-2023 of the International Association of University Presidents (IAUP).
